Recommendations for Three Divisions of Basketball and Volleyball
By: NDHSAA Realignment Committee

Presented to NDHSAA Board: January 24, 2009

Presented to NDHSAA Membership: January 26, 2009

Facts:

1. 9-12 enrollments as per the DPI Fall Report are used as an indicator to determine where schools would be assigned if a change was made now.
2. Basketball seasons shall continue to be 16 weeks in length and volleyball season shall continue to be 14 weeks in length.
3. The plan will be reviewed every two years.
4. Petitions to play up a division must be made in writing.

Proposed to begin in school year 2010-11.

I. AA Division

- a. Includes those schools having 9-12 enrollments that are 400 or larger plus any petitions to play up a division.
- b. Divided into two regions.
- c. The regional tournament shall begin with play-in games if needed and then continue on the Thursday, Friday and Saturday before the state tournament. The deadline for regional play-in games shall be the Monday prior to remaining tournament play.
- d. The existing format for regional tournaments shall continue whereby 4 boys and 4 girls teams from each region will qualify for the state tournament.
- e. The state tournament format will continue as a combined boys and girls tournament.
- f. The state tournament will be the first weekend in March.

II. A Division

- a. Shall consist of a minimum of the next 32 largest schools using 9-12 enrollments plus any petitions to play up a division.
- b. Divided into four regions.
- c. Two boys and two girls teams from each region shall qualify for state.
- d. The regional tournament shall begin with play-in games if needed and then continue on the Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday before the state tournament. The deadline for play-in games shall be the Monday prior to remaining tournament play.
- e. On even numbered years, the four girls regional games will be held at the tournament site on Tuesday and the four boys games will be on Thursday.
- f. On odd numbered years, the four boys regional games will be held at the tournament site on Tuesday and the girls regional games will be on Thursday.
- g. Boys and girls semi-final games on Friday will be played accordingly: Girl, Boy, Girl, Boy.
- h. On Saturday the games will also be scheduled girl/boy/girl/boy.
- i. The state tournament will be a combined boys and girls tournament.
- j. The state tournament will be held the second weekend in March.

III. B Division

- a. Shall consist of the remainder of schools not assigned to the AA or A Division.
- b. Divided into eight regions.
- c. Each region shall seed eight boys and eight girls teams to the regional tournament.
- d. Eight regional champions shall qualify for the state tournament.
- e. The regional tournament shall begin with play-in games if needed.
 - i. Play-in games will be at the site of the higher seed.
 - ii. The deadline for play-in games shall be Monday prior to remaining tournament play.
- f. On even numbered years, the four girls games will be held on Tuesday at the regional tournament site and the four boys games will be on Thursday.
- g. On odd numbered years, the four boys games will be held on Tuesday at the regional tournament site and the girls games will be on Thursday.
- h. Boys and girls semi-final games on Friday will alternate accordingly: Girl, boy, girl, boy.
- i. On Saturday the games will also be scheduled girl/boy/girl/boy.
- j. The state tournament will be a combined boys and girls tournament.
- k. The state tournament will be held the third weekend in March.

Timeline

1. Provide an update report to the membership in January and ask for input anytime from January to March.
